

The Georgia Golf Trail features the best of Georgia with a collaboration of the states' top resorts and golf clubs, presenting the Peach State as a premier golf haven.

From the mountains to the plains, and on to the beautiful Georgia coast, the Peach State has much to offer. For the golfer, this beautiful landscape is home to world-class golf at many of the finest resorts in the world. Whether traveling for business or a pleasurable weekend get-away, the sights and sounds of Georgia make our state a top travel destination. Come play where legendary golfer Bobby Jones built a reputation of golf history that can't be rivaled anywhere else in the world

The Georgia Golf Trail proudly represents the best golf has to offer. Our 25 top resorts render first class golf and accommodations that are second to none!

Georgia's temperate climate sets the stage for year round golf. Whether you seek golfing amongst the spring azaleas, in the summer breeze off the coast, or surrounded by the burst of fall colors in the mountains, you will always find the perfect time and place for your golf getaway along The Georgia Golf Trail.

For more information on Georgia Golf & Travel, LLC please contact us at:
www.georgiagolfandtravel.com

GOLF PACKAGES AVAILABLE
1-855-388-GOLF (4653)

Georgia Golf & Travel, LLC
 281 Providence Club Dr.
 Suite 100
 Monroe, GA 30656
 770-266-0331

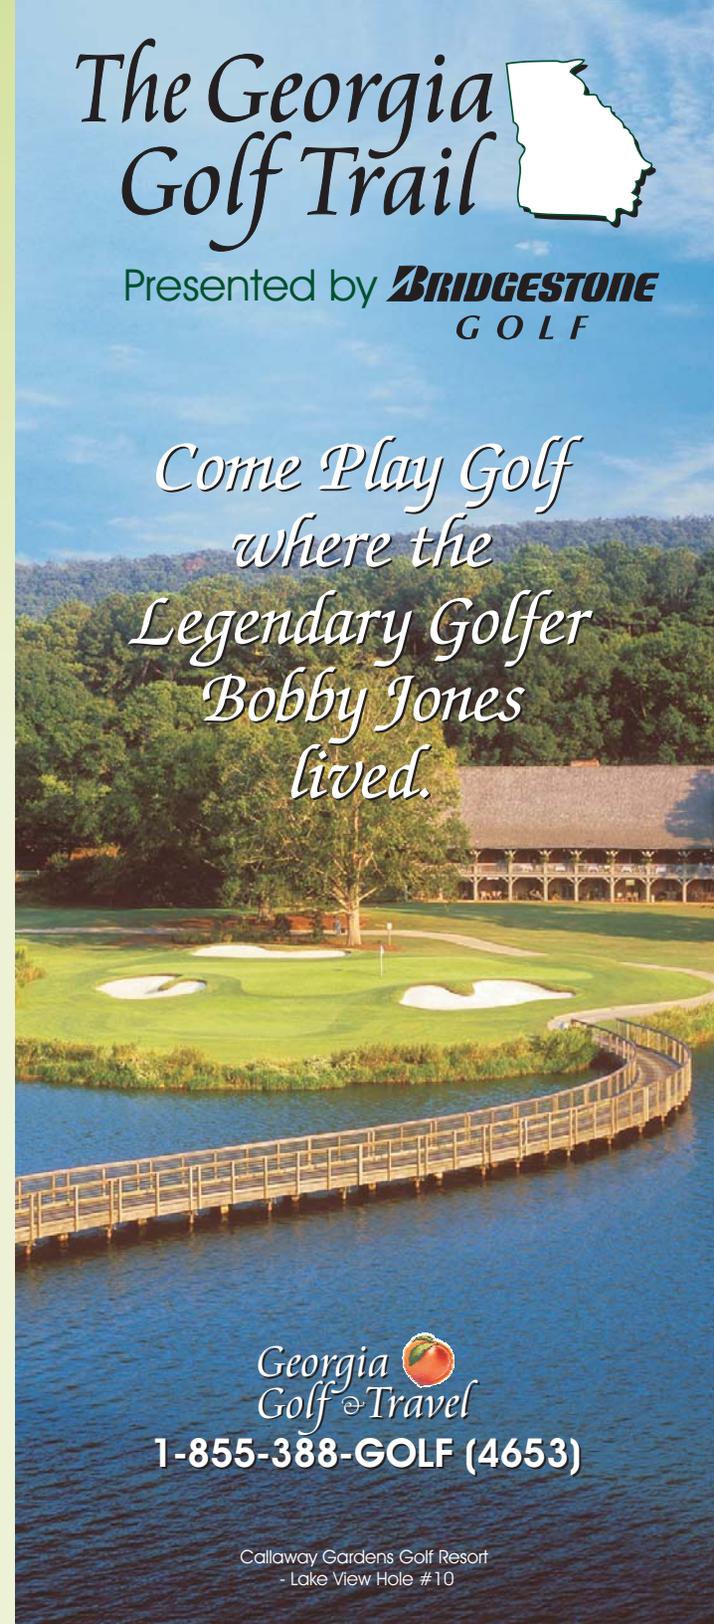

The Georgia Golf Trail

Presented by BRIDGESTONE GOLF

*Come Play Golf where the Legendary Golfer
 Bobby Jones lived.*

Georgia Golf & Travel
1-855-388-GOLF (4653)

Callaway Gardens Golf Resort
 - Lake View Hole #10

Arrowhead Pointe:

Constant elevation change is the dominating feature of our Bob Walker-designed course. Many of our tee boxes are 20-30 feet above the greens, providing you with panoramic views of the Georgia countryside.

Brazell's Creek:

A great 18-hole layout awaits you! Georgia's own Denis Griffiths designed the new 18-hole layout, so it's definitely a challenging yet fun test of golf. The Par 71 layout plays to just under 7,000 yards from the tips, boasting five sets of tees.

Brasstown Valley Resort and Spa:

Nestled among the North Georgia Mountains, Brasstown Valley Resort & Spa quietly redefines the typical mountain getaway is something for everyone.

Callaway Gardens:

Few resorts in America combine world-class golf and the wonders of nature like Callaway Gardens.

Château Élan:

Three championship layouts augmented by lush vineyards and a 16th-century French-style Château, is exceptional.

George T. Bagby:

Payers who appreciate a links style layout will be challenged at Meadow Links.

Harbor Club:

Natural beauty that the open waters of the lake provide. Surrounded by 1600 acres of wooded hills and bordered by 9 miles of Lake Oconee.

Highland Walk:

Highland Walk offers 18 holes of great value golf. The course is built on steep rolling hills with broad, crowned Bermuda fairways leading to generous, sloping Bermuda greens.

Innsbruck Golf Club:

The challenges of Jekyll's 63 holes on four courses are matched by the sheer beauty of the location, set in a coastal environment of warm breezes and sunshine.

Jekyll Island:

Innsbruck Resort and Golf Club is nestled in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of North Georgia located in the Alpine Community of Helen

Lake Blackshear Georgia Veterans:

Designed by architect Denis Griffiths and listed on Golf Digest magazine's list of four star-rated courses, Georgia Veterans Memorial Golf Course rests quietly on the shores of Lake Blackshear.

Little Ocmulgee:

One of the hidden gems of the South, golfers who play a round at Wallace Adams rarely forget the experience. The classic course is surrounded by loblolly pines, willows, and magnolias, in a gracious and secluded setting.

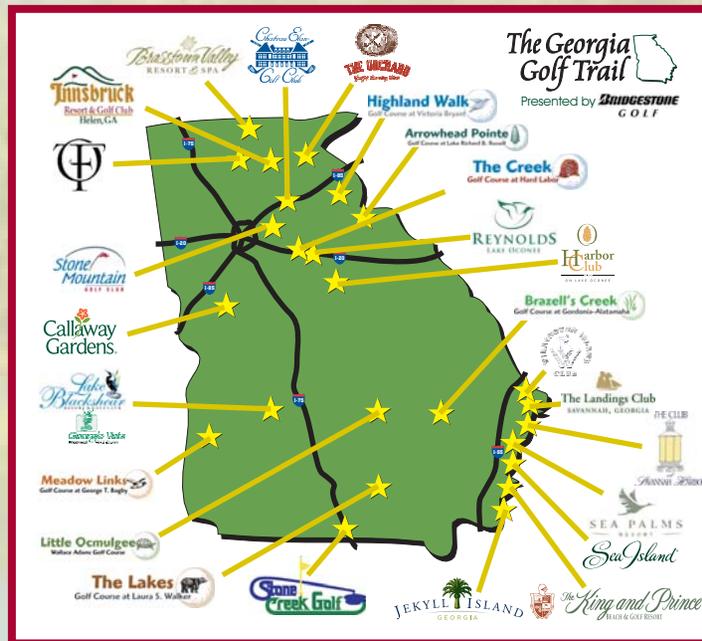

Old Toccoa Farm:

Among the massive bunkers and hardwoods, you'll discover golf in its purest state — and an experience unlike any other. Twisted knots of mountain laurel, rock outcroppings

The Georgia Golf Trail

Presented by BRIDGESTONE
GOLF

The Georgia Golf Trail has something no other state has to offer anywhere in the country, 25 top resorts that have first class golf and accommodations second to none.

From the mountains to the coast, come play golf where legendary golfer Bobby Jones lived and helped build a reputation of golf history that you won't find anywhere.

Georgia
Golf & Travel

Reynolds Lake Oconee:

Reynolds Lake Oconee boasts 117 holes of golf designed by some of the most respected golf architects in the game.

Sea Island:

The Sea Island Golf Club at The Lodge includes three championship golf courses: Plantation, Retreat, and the historic Seaside Course

Sea Palms Resort:

With 27 holes, three tennis courts and an amazing convention center, we guarantee you will have the time of your life while staying with us.

Stone Creek:

Franzman-Davis design, that winds its way through traditional South Georgia wetlands. The property boasts an authentic beaver pond, a trophy bass lake and other strategically located ponds and low land areas.

Stone Mountain:

Nestled at the foot of Stone Mountain and just minutes from downtown Atlanta, Stone Mountain Golf Club offers two championship courses that provide the perfect challenge for any skill level.

The Club at Savannah Harbor:

The resort's impeccable Troon-managed golf course is open for play most days. Enjoy the genteel pleasures of a spa treatment or club dining with views of quiet marshes.

The Creek:

The Creek at Hard Labor is known for its challenging layout in a pristine, natural setting. Featuring Champion Bermuda greens and narrow tree-lined fairways, The Creek was named "4th sweetest deal in USA" by Golf Digest Frugal Golfer in 2010.

The Lakes:

The Lakes Golf Course was designed by Steve Burnes and features native sand for the many bunkers and waste areas. This coastal Georgia course has three large lakes and is very close to the Okefenokee Swamp.

The Landings Club:

An Intracoastal Waterway island community, owned by its residents. Almost 40 years of national awards for golf and community excellence, with an address in one of the South's most charming and recognized cities

The King and Prince Beach and Golf Resort:

Originally designed by Joe Lee, the King and Prince Golf Course's signature is the group of four salt marsh island holes, accessed by 800 feet of bridges.

The Orchard:

18-hole championship golf course. The layout is a journey through picturesque mountains making it the absolute golfing experience designed by famed golf course architect, Dan Maples.

Wilmington Island Club:

Located just minutes from historic Savannah and the Tybee Island beaches The Wilmington Island Club is one of the finest golf courses in the Savannah area. Tee times are available to the public, so come join us on scenic Wilmington Island.